GSV NextGen Practice Initiative - 2026

Invitation for Professional Association for Building the Future of Professional Practice

GSV Associates LLP, Chartered Accountants, established in 1993 and presently comprising five partners, invites expressions of interest from newly qualified Chartered Accountants who possess an entrepreneurial mindset, a passion for professional practice, and the aspiration to build and lead emerging practice areas.

As part of our long-term vision of developing a future-ready professional services firm, we are launching the GSV NextGen Practice Initiative 2026. The initiative seeks to identify and associate with Chartered Accountants who are keen to create and develop new service verticals with the support of an established professional platform.

While our existing practice areas include Audit & Assurance, Goods and Services Tax, Internal Audit & Process Advisory, Financial Consultancy & Advisory Services, Direct Taxation and other specialised professional assignments, we are particularly interested in interacting with professionals who wish to build practices in emerging areas such as:

- Automation in Professional Services
- Data Analytics and Business Intelligence
- Global Accounting and Financial Reporting Support
- Finance Transformation and Digital Advisory
- Technology enabled Professional Solutions
- Information system audit and advisory services
- Any other innovative and future-oriented professional service area

The selected professionals will have the opportunity to build their proposed practice vertical with the support of the firm's established infrastructure, technology, administrative resources, professional guidance and multidisciplinary environment.

This initiative is intended to encourage professionals who aspire to create and lead a specialised practice within an established firm while contributing to the long-term growth and diversification of the organisation.

Interested Chartered Accountants are invited to walk in for a professional interaction to explore opportunities for association under the GSV NextGen Practice Initiative.

During the interaction, professionals are required to present:

- Their area of professional interest;
- The practice area or service vertical they aspire to develop;
- Their vision for establishing and growing the proposed practice; and
- How they believe the proposed practice can create sustainable value for clients and contribute to the future growth of the profession.

The interaction is intended to provide an opportunity for mutual discussion and to explore the feasibility of building the proposed practice vertical in association with GSV Associates LLP.

Professionals interested in this initiative may contact us to schedule a convenient time for the interaction.
