REQUIREMENT OF ARTICLED ASSISTANTS

Manjula & Associates is a Chennai based firm of Chartered Accountants with an established practice in audit and assurance, direct taxation, goods and services tax and corporate compliance, including regular appearance before the assessing, adjudicating and appellate authorities.

We propose to induct Two articled assistants who wish to build a strong foundation in litigation-oriented taxation and assurance work, and invite applications from candidates eligible to commence articled training under the Chartered Accountants Regulations, 1988.

WHAT THE TRAINING OFFERS

- Direct engagement with the Partners on live audit, assessment and appellate matters, rather than peripheral support work
- Exposure across statutory and tax audit, income-tax assessment and appeals, GST compliance and departmental adjudication, and ROC compliance
- A consolidated monthly stipend as minimum prescribed by the Institute, revised periodically on the basis of performance
- Study and examination leave in full measure, as provided under the Regulations
- Training at our office at Egmore,Chennai; no outstation or branch posting

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

Candidates who have cleared both groups of the CA Intermediate examination, or who are registered under the Direct Entry Scheme, and are eligible to be registered as articled assistants with the Institute. A sound grasp of accounting fundamentals, clarity in written expression and a genuine interest in taxation will be given weight.

Interested Candidates may please mail their resumes to the mail :camanjula@mail.ca.in
